WELLS discusses the Tariff and Tariff Legislation from the standpoint of the free trader, and D. H. MASON from the point of view of the protectionist. E. L. PUBLICATION HOUSE,

58 READE STREET, NEW YORK.

T. L. CUYLER, D.D., President.
Wm. D. PORTER, Treasurer.
J. N. STEARNS, Corresponding Sec'y & Publishing Agent.

THE NATIONAL TEMPERANCE SOCIETY, organized in 1866 for the purpose of supplying a sound and able Temperance Literature, has already stereotyped and published over eighteen hundred publications of all sorts and sizes, from the one-page tract up to the bound volume of 1,000 pages. This list comprises Books, Papers, Tracts, Pamphlets, and Leaflets, containing Essays, Stories, Sermons, Arguments, Statistics, History, etc., upon every phase of the question. Special attention has been given to the department

FOR SUNDAY-SCHOOL LIBRARIES.

One hundred and seventy volumes have already been issued, written by some of the best authors in the land. These have been carefully examined and unanimously approved by the Publication Committee of the Society, representing the various religious denominations and temperance organizations of the country, which consists of the following members:

PETER CARTER, HALSEY MOORE, D.D., ALBERT G. LAWSON, D.D., R. R. SINCLAIR,
W. T. SABINE, D.D., T. A. BROUWER, JOSHUA L. BAILY, JAMES BLACK,
A. A. ROBBINS, D. C. EDDY, D.D., T. L. POULSON, D.D., J. N. STEARNS,
J. O. PECK, D.D.

These volumes have been cordially commended by leading clergymen of all denominations, and by various National and State bodies all over the land.

The following is the list, which can be procured through the regular Sunday-school trade, or by sending direct to the rooms of the Society:

At Lion's Mouth. 12mo, 410 pp. By Mary Dwinell Chellis.....1 25

This is one of the best books ever issued, written in a simple yet thrilling and interesting style. It speaks boldly for the entire suppression of the liquor-traffic, depicting vividly the misery and wrongs resulting from it. The Christian tone is most excellent, showing the necessity of God's grace in the heart to overcome temptation and the power of appetite, and the influence which one zealous Christian can exert upon his companions and the community.

Adopted. 18mo, 236 pp. By Mrs. E. J. Richmond, author of "The McAllisters"..... 60

This book is written in an easy, pleasant style, seems to be true to nature, true to itself, and withal is full of the Gospel and Temperance.

Alice Grant; or, Faith and Temperance. 12mo, 352 pp. By Mrs. E. J. Richmond..... 1 25

The religious tone of this volume is most excellent, as well as the temperance lessons it conveys. The story relates more especially to woman's work in this great reform, showing that faith in God is essential to success in any great work, and that God's grace in the heart can keep even the weakest from falling.

All for Money. 12mo, 340 pp. By Mary Dwinell Chellis..... 1 25

One of the best books ever written; its style vigorous and impressive, showing the deceptions practised in the liquor business—the unhappiness and ruin it produces—and that many will engage in it simply because its profits are large and wealth gained easily. It warns the reader against engaging in anything that takes away peace of conscience, bartering soul and body "all for money."

Amid the Shadows. 12mo, 412 pp. By Mrs. M. F. Martin..... 1 25

It is founded upon the facts of real life, and strikingly illustrates the utter wretchedness which intemperance begets alike among the poor and the wealthy, and also the power of the Gospel of Christ to reclaim and save. It embodies also a powerful plea for early and entire consecration to the religious life.

Andrew Douglass. 18mo, 232 pp. 60

A new temperance story for Sunday-schools, written in a lively, energetic, and popular style, adapted to the Sabbath-school and the family circle.

Aunt Dinah's Pledge. 12mo, 318 pp. By Mary Dwinell Chellis. 1 25

Aunt Dinah was an eminent Christian woman. Her pledge included swearing and smoking, as well as drinking. It saved her boys, who lived useful lives and died happy; and by quiet, yet loving and persistent work, names of many others were added who seemed almost beyond hope of salvation.

Anna Maynard. 12mo, large size, 278 pp. By Mrs. E. J. Richmond. 1 00

No better book can be found for young girls, showing as it does the many helpful kinds of work in which young girls can engage: Temperance work, Missionary work, and the varied work of the King's Daughters.

Beforehand. 12mo, 529 pp. By Mrs. S. M. I. Henry. Paper cover, 50 cents; cloth..... 1 50

This is a sequel to "One More Chance," and it introduces us to new characters, showing the pure, sweet home-life of Charles and Hortense Graham, where the work of making their little ones pure, helpful, and all that goes to make Christian men and women was begun "beforehand."

It is a strongly-written book, of intense interest throughout, a book of facts, and has the deep religious tone which pervades each of Mrs. Henry's books.

Bird-Angel, The. 12mo, large size, 147 pp. By Miss M. A. Paull. 75

It is a book of much interest, well written, and will be well liked by young people, for whom it was written. It shows the importance of right training in early youth, and the value of temperance teachings in Bands of Hope, which often influence for good a whole lifetime.

Barford Mills. 12mo, 246 pp. By Miss M. E. Winslow..... 1 00

A narrative of facts simply told and full of interest, dealing with a settlement of Swedes in Mill Village, prosperous and thrifty until the opening of a liquor-saloon in their midst, which was finally banished in answer to the prayers of a few faithful ones.

Best Fellow in the World, The. 12mo, 352 pp. By Mrs. J. McNair Wright..... 1 25

"The Best Fellow," whose course is here portrayed, is one of a very large class who are led astray and ruined simply because they are such "good fellows." To all such the volume speaks in thrilling tones of warning.

Bread and Beer. 12mo, 381 pp. By Mary Dwinell Chellis. Paper, 50 cents; cloth..... 1 25

It is a story of absorbing interest, which portrays in a striking light the unhappy consequences of beer-drinking in impoverishing and ruining the home; strongly enforces the wisdom and duty of total abstinence; teaches important lessons of economy and industry; and effectively illustrates the blessed mission of Christian sympathy and love.

Brewer's Fortune, The. 12mo, 425 pp. By Mary Dwinell Chellis. 1 50

This is one of the best volumes ever written by this popular author, and shows that wealth cannot compensate for evil-doing, and that the sins of the fathers are often visited upon the children.

Brewery at Taylorville, The. 12mo, 445 pp. Mary Dwinell Chellis. 1 50

This book shows how much evil was wrought by the establishment of a brewery in a hitherto prosperous town, and how it brought ruin and disgrace upon those who indulged in what are called the lighter drinks. It is one of the strongest books in favor of total abstinence from everything that can intoxicate.

Broken Rock, The. 18mo, 139 pp. By Kruna, author of "Lift a Little," etc..... 50

It beautifully illustrates the silent and holy influence of a meek and lowly spirit upon the heartless rumseller until the rocky heart was broken.

Brook, The, and The Tide Turning. 12mo, 220 pp..... 1 00

These are two stories in one volume. The first, "The Brook," by Sarah K. Hunt, is charming in its simplicity, its tender pathos moving one to tears. "The Tide Turning," by Miss L. Bates, is full of the Gospel, showing the wonderful power of God's grace in the heart.

Caught and Fettered. 12mo, 267 pp. By Mrs. J. P. Ballard..... 1 00

This volume contains over seventy-one different stories, written by the children's favorite author, who is well known as one of the best temperance writers in the country. It is illustrated by eleven choice wood-engravings.

Captain's Bargain, The. 12mo, 340 pp. By Mrs. J. McNair Wright. Paper cover, 50 cents; cloth.. 1 25

Mrs. Wright has written many admirable books, but many will pronounce this her best. It is a charming story because of its simplicity, and of thrilling interest. The lessons it conveys are good and wholesome, and such as our boys need to learn.

Catharine Grafton's Mistake. By Lydia L. Rouse. 16mo, 241 pp. .90

The mistake of a young wife and mother by over-indulgence with her children, and her scorn of her husband's religious sentiments, was recognized long years after, when sin and sorrow had come to her home.

Circled by Fire. 18mo, 96 pp. By Mrs. J. McNair Wright..... 40

It shows the hereditary effects of the drink-habit and the heroic struggle of one of its victims to overcome the fearful appetite.

Coals of Fire. 12mo, 252 pp. By M. Alice Sweet..... 1 00

This is a story showing the lasting evil which use of intoxicating drinks brings into a family, and how the children who suffer by it rise above the temptation and literally pour coals of fire upon the heads of those who bring the curse upon them.

Come Home, Mother. 18mo, 143 pp. By Nelsie Brook..... 50

A most effective and interesting book, describing the downward course of the mother, and giving an account of the sad scenes but effectual endeavors of the little one in bringing her mother back to friends and leading her to God. It should be read by everybody.

Competitive Workmen. 12mo, 272 pp. By Faye Huntington.... 1 00

It shows what two zealous workers did for the people of a country village, winning them over to the cause of Christ, to temperance, and education.

Congressman Stanley's Fate. 12mo, 403 pp. By Harriet A. Harp. 1 25

It shows in the life of Congressman Stanley, that moderate drinking is but a stepping-stone to drunkenness. Having inherited a liking for alcoholic drinks, his only safety lay in his abstaining entirely from their use. When first overcome, being warned and ashamed, he decided to abstain. When elected to Congress, however, he found the allurements and claims of society too strong for his weak nature, and, admired and flattered by all, he easily fell a victim to the pernicious convivial wine-cup.

Consecrated. 12mo, 434 pp. By Ernest Gilmore..... 1 50

It is pure in tone, full of interest, and is just the kind of a book that all young girls should read. It shows the beauties and happiness of a life consecrated to Christ and His service, and that a little self-denial can bring blessings to many homes darkened by poverty and cursed by drink.

Curly Head. 12mo, 262 pp. By Elvirton Wright..... 1 00

An excellent book for boys, giving the novel experiences of a young lady and her "Thinking Club," which was composed of street boys, who met at her house at stated intervals. Their "thinking" led them to renounce the use of tobacco and strong drink.

Curse and the Cup, The. 18mo, 96 pp. By Mrs. J. McNair Wright 40

It is founded upon well-authenticated facts. The danger of tampering with strong drink, even for medicinal use, is strikingly shown, as is the guilt of the State in licensing temptation. Its lesson for total abstinence is most impressive.

Curse of Mill Valley, The. 12mo, 331 pp. Mrs. S. M. Hartough. 1 25

This is one of the strongest temperance stories ever written, showing how a quiet, lovely mill village, the inhabitants of which were temperate, industrious, and frugal, was changed for the worse by the opening of a bar-room in the village hotel and of a low groggery.

Dave Marquand. 12mo, large size, 357 pp. By Annette L. Noble. 1 25

Written in a happy, sprightly style, for which the author is noted, it gives an excellent moral and Christian tone to its teachings. The characters are varied and well selected. It adds another to the really valuable temperance books of our catalogue for Sunday-school libraries.

Day with a Demon, A. 18mo, 96 pp. By Mrs. J. McNair Wright.... 40

It illustrates very forcibly the incidents of a single day of intelligent observation and inquiry, the danger involved in moderate drinking and the degradation and sorrow which intemperance begets.

Dragon and the Tea-Kettle, The. 12mo, 288 pp. By Mrs. J. McNair Wright..... 1 00

The title of the book is the name of a cheap coffee-house in England which the proprietor established directly opposite a gorgeous gin-palace, that she might better fight the drink which had done her harm. It drew away from the saloon many a customer, and did a steady, quiet work in reclaiming those who had fallen through strong drink.

Drinking Fountain Stories, The. 12mo, 192 pp..... 90

This book of illustrated stories for children contains articles from some of the best writers for children in America, and is beautifully illustrated with forty choice wood-engravings.

Dumb Traitor, The. 12mo, 336 pp. By Margaret E. Wilmer..... 1 25

Intensely interesting, showing how the prospects of a well-to-do New England family were blighted through the introduction of a box of wine, given in friendship, used as a medicine, but proving a dumb traitor in the end.

Dr. Wallsten's Way. 12mo, 319 pp. By Rev. T. L. Baily..... 1 25

It is a story of temperance work in a country town, started by Dr. Wallsten, an earnest, persistent Christian man, whose "way" was to gain the friendship and good-will of those opposed to him or the good work by his repeated acts of kindness; not only bringing healing into the homes of the people, but also carrying relief for the destitute, sympathy and love.

Echo Bank. 18mo, 269 pp. By Ervie..... 75

This is a well-written and deeply interesting narrative, in which are clearly shown the sufferings and sorrow that too often follow, and the dangers that attend, boys and young men at school and at college.

Effie Raymond's Life-Work, Going with the Stream, and other Stories. 12mo, 270 pp. By Jeannie Bell. 1 00

While it teaches important temperance lessons, showing that drunkenness arises from moderate drinking, it also teaches others equally important in a right life. Its religious tone is most excellent.

Emerald Spray, The. 18mo, 85 pp. By Mrs. J. McNair Wright.... 40

In this story the sad experience of an interesting family despoiled and brought to the verge of ruin by drink, and who afterward, through the kind offices of a "Good Samaritan," and the saving power of the grace of God, were rescued, is given.

Esther Maxwell's Mistake. 18mo, 236 pp. By Mrs. E. N. Janvier. 1 00

This book is full of Gospel truth, and written in a simple but earnest style, showing the utter absurdity of endeavoring to forget trouble by the use of strong drink.

Eva's Engagement Ring. 12mo, 189 pp. By Margaret E. Wilmer... 75

In this interesting volume is traced the career of the moderate drinker who takes a glass in the name of friendship or courtesy.

Everyday Doings. 12mo, 408 pp. By Helena Richardson..... 1 25

This exceedingly well-written book received the supplementary prize from the United Kingdom Band of Hope Union as "possessing exceptional merit," and will be found a valuable addition to the Sunday-school literature of the times. It is a record of a few of the doings in a Christian land, and the author says "every fact, nearly every scene, and every speech, is perfectly true. Most of them have taken place within the author's own experience."

Fanny Percy's Knight Errant. 12mo, 267 pp. By Mary Graham. 1 00

An admirably written story, illustrating the power of individual effort and the importance of early enlisting the young in Christian work and the cause of total abstinence.

Fatal Dower, The. 18mo, 220 pp. By Mrs. E. J. Richmond..... 60

It is truthful and convincing as well as interesting, showing the fatal effects of administering alcoholic poisons as medicines, and pointing out the snares and pitfalls which are so thickly strewn along the paths of the young and innocent.

Firebrands; a Temperance Tale. 12mo, 357 pp. By Mrs. J. McNair Wright..... 1 25

This is the latest production from the pen of this able and gifted author, and should be placed in the hands of every one for perusal.

Fire-Fighters, The. 12mo, 294 pp. By Mrs. J. E. McConaughy.... 1 25

Strange Sea-Story, A. 12mo, 427 pp. By Mrs. J. McNair Wright, author of "Nothing to Drink," etc. 1 50

This is one of the strangest yet thrilling and interesting stories from the pen of this gifted author. The strangest thing, possibly, about it is that it is true—so entirely true that even the names of the ship and the abandoned sailor have been retained. The story is taken from an accurate narrative of events, and is one of those protests of ungarnished fact against the use of intoxicating drinks, showing more plainly than any romance the terrible evils that follow in its train, destroying the innocent with the guilty.

Story of Rasmus, The; or, The Making of a Man. Large 12mo, 338 pp. By Mrs. J. McNair Wright. Paper cover, 50 cents; cloth..... 1 25

Most valuable because of the temperance, religious, and scientific truths it teaches. Any boy who possesses the sterling principles of Rasmus has in him "the making of a man."

Sunset on Mt. Blanc. 12mo, 456 pp. By Mrs. M. F. Martin..... 1 50

It beautifully illustrates how the lives of true Christians can rise above the shadows which gather round those who live merely a nominal Christian life, as the stately and majestic mountain lifts its head and basks in the sunshine of God's love, leaving the shadows in the valley and shrouding other hills and mountains in gloomy darkness. The deceitful nature and influence of the wine-cup is graphically shown in the worthless life of one of its fashionable victims.

Turning of the Wheel, The. Large 12mo, 342 pp. By Mary Dwinell Chellis..... 1 25

It is a most interesting book in every way; a story of work, showing that success is sure to come to those who deserve it; that by economy, industry, and perseverance, united with strictly total-abstinence habits, a boy can override poverty and win for himself both a name and a fortune. It shows that the curse of the laborer's and the curse of the rich man's home are one and the same—strong drink.

True to his Colors. 12mo, 349 pp. By Rev. T. P. Wilson, M.A.... 1 25

The hero of the story is an earnest Christian man, consecrated to the cause of temperance, who made his home a sort of temperance refuge and hospital, and many a poor drunkard was rescued and rehabilitated through his timely aid and beneficent counsel. The lesson of total abstinence is strongly enforced, and also the paramount importance of the uncompromising Christian life.

Under Ban. 12mo, large size, 325 pp. By Miss M. E. Winslow..... 1 25

This is an interesting story of village life, where the leaders of society put the liquor-traffic and those concerned in it under ban by refusing to receive as equals the families of those whose hands were soiled by complicity with the ruinous, soul-destroying traffic.

Voice of the Home, The. 12mo, 404 pp. By Mrs. S. M. I. Henry. Paper, 50 cents; cloth..... 1 25

It is a story of a boy and his mother and home. The mother is a true Christian woman, and her home everything which a home can be, with one "small" exception —that among its furnishings are the cider and wine of domestic manufacture. Roy is a representative boy, containing many of the things good and grand. The story shows how time and his surroundings developed latent powers and opened promises of strong and efficient manhood, and also shows how he is defeated at every point by the love of his mother's wine, until sorrow, for which this life can find no room for any compensation, comes to the old homestead.

Vow at the Bars. 18mo, 108 pp. 40

It contains four short tales, illustrating four important principles connected with the temperance movement, and is well adapted for the family circle and Sabbath-school libraries.

White Rose, The. 12mo, 320 pp. By Mary J. Hedges..... 1 25

The gift of a simple white rose was the means of leading those who cared for it to the Saviour How it was done is very pleasantly told, and also the wrongs resulting in the use of strong drink forcibly shown.

Wife's Engagement Ring, The. 12mo, 278 pp. By T. S. Arthur. 1 25

This story is of a high order of excellence in its literary quality, and presents in a strong light, and with great power, the peril involved in moderate drinking. Its characters are intensely real and lifelike, and it is impossible for the reader not to become deeply interested in them. It should have a wide circulation, especially among those who think there is no harm in a "social glass" now and then.

Winning Side, The. 12mo, 323 pp. By Mary Dwinell Chellis..... 1 25

It is written in the author's usual excellent style, is deeply interesting, and teaches valuable lessons which young men and women should early learn. As shown in the character of Charles Hindman, the brewer, whose sole ambition was to amass a fortune and be regarded as "a money king," he only can be counted on the winning side whose money is honestly made, who considers the rights of others, and whose life is the opposite of a mere selfish worldly existence.

THE YOUTH'S TEMPERANCE BANNER.

THE NATIONAL TEMPERANCE SOCIETY AND PUBLICATION HOUSE publishes a beautiful illustrated four-page Monthly Paper for Children and Youth, Sabbath-schools, and Juvenile Temperance Organizations. Each number contains several choice engravings, a piece of music, and a great variety of articles from the pens of the best writers for children in America.

Its object is to make the temperance work and education a part of the religious culture and training of the Sabbath-school and family circle, that the children may be early taught to shun the intoxicating cup and walk in the path of truth, soberness, and righteousness.

The following are some of the writers for THE BANNER: Mrs. J. P. Ballard (Kruna), Mary D. Chellis, Mrs. Nellie H. Bradley, Mrs. W. F. Crafts, Edward Carswell, Geo. W. Bungay, Miss A. L. Solomon encouraged I. CHRONICLES, XXVIII. to build the temple.

22 Of Dan, Azareel the son of Jeroham. These were the princes of the tribes of Israel.

23 ¶ But David took not the number of them from twenty years old and under: because the Lord had said he would increase Israel like to the stars of the heavens.

24 Joab the son of Zeruiah began to number, but he finished not, because there fell wrath for it against Israel; neither was the number put in the account of the chronicles of king David.

25 ¶ And over the king's treasures was Azmaveth the son of Adiel: and over the of the covenant of the Lord, and for the footstool of our God, and had made ready for the building:

3 But God said unto me, Thou shalt not build an house for my name, because thou hast been a man of war, and hast shed blood.

4 Howbeit the Lord God of Israel chose me before all the house of my father to be king over Israel for ever: for he hath chosen Judah to be the ruler; and of the house of Judah, the house of my father; and among the sons of my father he liked me to make me king over all Israel:

The land assigned to NUMBERS, XXXII. the Reubenites and Gadites.

12 Save Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenezite, and Joshua the son of Nun: for they have wholly followed the LORD.

13 And the LORD's anger was kindled against Israel, and he made them wander in the wilderness forty years, until all the generation, that had done evil in the sight of the LORD, was consumed.

14 And, behold, ye are risen up in your fathers' stead, an increase of sinful men, to augment yet the fierce anger of the LORD toward Israel.

15 For if ye turn away from after him, he will yet again leave them in the wilderness; and ye shall destroy all this people.

16 ¶ And they came near unto him, and said, We will build sheepfolds here for our cattle, and cities for our little ones:

armed, they shall have possessions among you in the land of Canaan.

31 And the children of Gad and the children of Reuben answered, saying, As the LORD hath said unto thy servants, so will we do.

32 We will pass over armed before the LORD into the land of Canaan, that the possession of our inheritance on this side Jordan may be our's.

33 And Moses gave unto them, even to the children of Gad, and to the children of Reuben, and unto half the tribe of Manasseh the son of Joseph, the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, and the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, the land, with the cities thereof in the coasts, even the cities of the country round about.

Christ's conference ST. JOHN, III. with Nicodemus.

19 Jesus answered and said unto them, Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.

20 Then said the Jews, Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou rear it up in three days?

4 Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?

5 Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he can-

God threateneth Babylon. ISAIAH, XIV. The restoration of Israel.

7 Therefore shall all hands be faint, and every man's heart shall melt:

8 And they shall be afraid: pangs and sorrows shall take hold of them; they shall be in pain as a woman that travaileth: they shall be amazed one at another; their faces shall be as flames.

9 Behold, the day of the LORD cometh, cruel both with wrath and fierce anger, to lay the land desolate: and he shall destroy the sinners thereof out of it.

10 For the stars of heaven and the constellations thereof shall not give their light: the sun shall be darkened in his going forth, and the moon shall not cause her light to shine.

11 And I will punish the world for their evil, and the wicked for their iniquity; and I will cause the arrogancy of the proud to cease, and will lay low the haughtiness of the terrible.

12 I will make a man more precious than fine gold; even a man than the golden wedge of Ophir.

13 Therefore I will shake the heavens, and the earth shall remove out of her place, in the wrath of the LORD of hosts, and in the day of his fierce anger.

14 And it shall be as the chased roe, and as a sheep that no man taketh up: they shall every man turn to his own people, and flee every one into his own land.

15 Every one that is found shall be thrust through; and every one that is joined unto them shall fall by the sword.

16 Their children also shall be dashed to pieces before their eyes; their houses shall be spoiled, and their wives ravished.

17 Behold, I will stir up the Medes against them, which shall not regard silver; and as for gold, they shall not delight in it.

18 Their bows also shall dash the young men to pieces; and they shall have no pity on the fruit of the womb; their eye shall not spare children.

19 And Babylon, the glory of kingdoms, the beauty of the Chaldees' excellency, shall be as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah.

20 It shall never be inhabited, neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation: neither shall the Arabian pitch tent there; neither shall the shepherds make their fold there.

21 But wild beasts of the desert

Like things happen to all. ECCLESIASTES, IX. On God's providence.

Before CHRIST cir. 977.

a Ps. 49. 6, 7.
c Job 14. 5.
2 Or, casting off weapons.

8 a There is no man that hath power c over the spirit to retain the spirit; neither hath he power in the day of death: and there is no 2discharge in that war; neither shall wickedness deliver those that are given to it.

9 All this have I seen, and applied my heart unto every work that is done under the sun: there is a time wherein one man ruleth over another to his own hurt.

10 And so I saw the wicked buried, who had come and gone from the place of the holy, and they were forgotten in the city where there is one event to the righteous, and to the wicked; to the good and to the clean, and to the unclean; to him that sacrificeth, and to him that sacrificeth not: as is the good, so is the sinner; and he that sweareth, as he that feareth an oath.

3 This is an evil among all things that are done under the sun, that there is one event unto all: yea, also the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and madness is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead.

Job's honour is turned JOB, XXIX, XXX. into extreme contempt.

Before CHRIST cir. 1520.

17 The gold and the crystal cannot equal it: and the exchange of it shall not be for [2]jewels of fine gold.
18 No mention shall be made of [3]coral, or of pearls: for the price of wisdom is above rubies.
19 The topaz of Ethiopia shall not equal it, neither shall it be valued with pure gold.
20 [e]Whence then cometh wisdom? and where is the place of understanding?
21 Seeing it is hid from the eyes of all living, and kept close from the fowls of the [4]air.
22 [f]Destruction and death say, We have heard the fame thereof with our ears.
23 God understandeth the way thereof, and he knoweth the place thereof.
24 For he looketh to the ends of the earth, and [g]seeth under the whole heaven;
25 [h]To make the weight for the winds; and he weigheth the waters

13 The blessing of him that was ready to perish came upon me: and I caused the widow's heart to sing for joy.
14 [i]I put on righteousness, and it clothed me: my judgment was as a robe and a diadem.
15 I was [k]eyes to the blind, and feet was I to the lame.
16 I was a father to the poor: and [l]the cause which I knew not I searched out.
17 And I brake [m][2]the jaws of the wicked, and [3]plucked the spoil out of his teeth.
18 Then I said, [n]I shall die in my nest, and I shall multiply my days as the sand.
19 [o]My root was [4]spread out [p]by the waters, and the dew lay all night upon my branch.
20 My glory was [5]fresh in me, and [q]my bow was [6]renewed in my hand.
21 Unto me men gave ear, and waited, and kept silence at my counsel.

The passage of the Red sea. EXODUS, XV. The song of Moses.

Before CHRIST 1491.

12 [p] Is not this the word that we did tell thee in Egypt, saying, Let us alone, that we may serve the Egyptians? For it had been better for us to serve the Egyptians, than that we should die in the wilderness.

13 ¶ And Moses said unto the people, [q] Fear ye not, stand still, and see the salvation of the LORD, which he will shew to you to day: [2] for the Egyptians whom ye have seen to day, ye shall see them again no more for ever.

14 [r] The LORD shall fight for you, and ye shall [s] hold your peace.

15 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Wherefore criest thou unto me? speak

26 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, [t] Stretch out thine hand over the sea, that the waters may come again upon the Egyptians, upon their chariots, and upon their horsemen.

27 And Moses stretched forth his hand over the sea, and the sea [k] returned to his strength when the morning appeared; and the Egyptians fled against it; and the LORD [l] [2] overthrew the Egyptians in the midst of the sea.

28 And [m] the waters returned, and [n] covered the chariots, and the horsemen, and all the host of Pharaoh that came into the sea after them; there remained not so much as one of them.

Christ's conference ST. JOHN, III. with Nicodemus.

19 Jesus answered and said unto them, Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.

20 Then said the Jews, Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou rear it up in three days?

21 But he spake of the temple of his body.

22 When therefore he was risen from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this unto them; and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said.

4 Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?

5 Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

6 That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

7 Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again.

34 MORNING PRAYER.

As he spake by the mouth of his holy Prophets, which have been since the world began;

That we should be saved from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us.

¶ Then shall be said the Apostles' Creed by the Minister and the People, standing. And any Churches may omit the words, He descended into hell, or may, instead of them, use the words, He went into the place of departed spirits, which are considered as into hell, The third day he rose from the dead; He ascended into heaven, And sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; From thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost; The holy Catholic Church; The Communion of Saints; The Forgiveness of sins; The Resurrection of the body; And the Life everlasting.

DESIRE to direct the close attention of all lovers of good novel reading to the works and authors contained in their new catalogue, just issued. A strict scrutiny is solicited, because the books enumerated in it are among the most popular now in existence. In supplying your wants and taste in the reading line, it is of the first importance that you should give special attention to what is popularly designated entertaining reading matter. No library is either attractive or complete without a collection of novels and romances. The experience of many years has demonstrated that light reading is essential to even the most studious men and women, furnishing the mind with healthful recreation; while to the young, and to those that have not cultivated a taste for solid works of science, it forms one of the best possible training schools, gradually establishing, in a pleasant manner, that habit of thought absolutely necessary to read works on political economy, the sciences, and the arts.

We publish and sell at very low rates full and varied editions of the works of all the famous American and Foreign Novelists, whose writings are very entertaining and specially adapted for all readers. The most of them are bound in strong cloth binding, and also in paper covers. Examination is asked for our editions of the writings of Mrs. Emma D. E. N. Burnett, the authoress of "Theo;" the realistic novels of Emile Zola, which have had a sale in this country unparalleled in the history of recent book-making; the charming and pathetic French and Russian romances of Henry Greville; the wonderful and famous fictions of Gustave Flaubert; the brilliant and artistic works of Octave Feuillet; the highly finished and powerful stories of Ernest Daudet; the popular and pleasing productions of Prosper Merimee; the beautiful and touching love tales of the celebrated George Sand; the clever and intensely interesting writings of Jules Sandeau; the exciting and ingenious novels of Adolphe Belot; the picturesque and enchaining works of Madame Angele Dussaud; the exquisitely pathetic romances of the Princess Altieri; the strong and graphic productions of Andre Theuriet; the wild frontier sketches of Gustave Aimard; the classic and refined works of Madame De Stael; the absorbing and vivid fictions of Alexander Dumas, Pere; the natural and forcible novels of Alexander Dumas, Fils; the startling and mysterious romances of Eugene Sue; the trenchant and unique narratives of Victor Hugo; of great interest is Sir Walter Scott, whose "Waverley" novels still maintain a strong hold on the people. Charles Dickens' complete writings we furnish in several styles. We publish also the weird stories of George Lippard; the martial novels of Charles Lever; the comical nautical tales of Captain Maryat; Emerson Bennett's Indian stories; Henry Cockton's laughable narratives; T. S. Arthur's temperance tales and household stories; the wonderful and entertaining novels of Eugene Sue and *W. H. Mrs. Southworth's works have become very popular, and they have great merits as fiction, for she has written many good novels for the fireside, and furnished an amazing fund of pure and healthy entertainment to thousands of readers that have been, and to many thousands more to come. The great secret of her hold upon her readers is, after her inventive genius, in framing the plots of her stories, and in the brisk and wide-awake manner in which all the details are executed. There is no time for listlessness, every movement is animated; and she is not only a popular and entertaining author, but a moral one, as she inculcates propriety, both by precept and by the example of her characters, which are calculated to do good to all readers. Her works should be read by all, for there is not a dull line in any of them, and they are full of thrilling and startling interest. Her characters are drawn with a strong hand, and actually appear to live and move before us. Probably no writer, man or woman, in America, is as popular, or has so wide a circle of readers as has Mrs. Southworth. Her stories are always full of thrilling interest to lovers of the sensational, and for literary merit they rank far above the works of any author or authoress of works of their class. Mrs. Southworth's stories have won their high place by her ability, and anything with which her name is identified is certain to meet with hearty approval. The following are their names.

"THREE GUARDSMEN SERIES."

Petersons' Complete and Unabridged Editions.

Foremost among the greatest novels of any age stand the five absorbing romances forming "The Three Guardsmen Series," as published by T. B. Peterson & Brothers. They are entitled respectively "The Three Guardsmen; or, The Three Mousquetaires," "Twenty Years After," the Sequel to "The Three Guardsmen," "Bragelonne, the Son of Athos; or, Ten Years Later," "The Iron Mask; or, The Feats and Adventures of Raoul de Bragelonne," and "Louise de la Valliere," the Sequel to "The Iron Mask," and conclusion of the famous "Three Guardsmen Series." Written by the world-renowned novelist, Alexander Dumas, the best and most powerful writer of fiction France has ever produced, when first published they created an excitement unparalleled in literary annals, and their vast popularity has been steadily maintained ever since. This cannot be wondered at when the books are read, for their fascination, strength and interest are unexampled. The original translations from the French of these superb romances were made by that celebrated translator, Thomas Williams, Esq., for T. B. Peterson & Brothers, and are published only by them. They are altogether complete and unabridged, faithfully reproducing every line that Dumas wrote just as it came from his pen, without the slightest editing, adaptation or modification. They are historical romances, filled to overflowing with love, stirring adventures, gallantry, soldierly daring and manliness, plots and counterplots, dark deeds, political machinations, virtue, vice, innocence and guilt. D'Artagnan, Athos, Aramis and Portho are the leading personages, and hosts of others fill their varied and important roles. Much light is thrown upon the history of France and the French Court, and that mystery which puzzled the world for nearly two centuries, the identity of the Prisoner in the Iron Mask, is completely solved in a manner so powerful, interesting and ingenious that this episode alone makes this series invaluable.

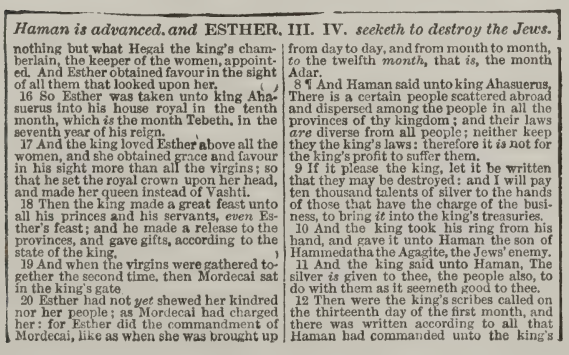
New Edition, printed on exceedingly thin paper.



Haman is advanced. and ESTHER. III. IV. seeketh to destroy the Jews.

nothing but what Hegai the king's chamberlain, the keeper of the women, appointed. And Esther obtained favour in the sight of all them that looked upon her.

16 So Esther was taken unto king Ahasuerus into his house royal in the tenth month, which is the month Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign.

17 And the king loved Esther above all the women, and she obtained grace and favour in his sight more than all the virgins; so that he set the royal crown upon her head, and made her queen instead of Vashti.

18 Then the king made a great feast unto all his princes and his servants, even Esther's feast; and he made a release to the provinces, and gave gifts, according to the state of the king.

9 If it please the king, let it be written that they may be destroyed: and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver to the hands of those that have the charge of the business, to bring it into the king's treasuries.

10 And the king took his ring from his hand, and gave it unto Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the Jews' enemy.

11 And the king said unto Haman, The silver is given to thee, the people also, to do with them as it seemeth good to thee.

12 Then were the king's scribes called on the thirteenth day of the first month, and there was written according to all that Haman had commanded unto the king's

The Highest Authorities Describe it as by Far the Best.

"We are often asked, 'What edition of the Bible is the best for practical use by a student or teacher?' To this we answer that we consider the new edition of the Bagster Bible as the most convenient in form, the clearest in print, and the best in its tables and helps of any that we have yet seen. The editor uses it himself, and recommends it to readers who wish to obtain a new Bible."—Rev. Dr. Hurlbut, successor to Bishop J. H. Vincent in editing S. S. Magazine, Our Youth, etc.

"The superior excellence of the 'Bagster' is seen in 'The Comprehensive Helps to Bible Study' which are found in the back part of the book. These comprise sufficient matter of the most valuable character to fill four good-sized 12mo volumes. In the 'Contents' of the 'Oxford Helps' there are 582 subjects noted; in the 'Bagster' there are 1860. This will give an idea of the fulness of information given."—Christian Advocate, Rev. S. McGerald, D.D., Buffalo, N. Y.

"Will probably prove the most popular of all the teachers' Bibles on the market. Almost every teacher and student will choose the Bagster."—Michigan Christian Advocate, January, 1889.

"Foremost among the Lesson Helps for next year is a serviceable Bible, and such is the 'Bagster Comprehensive.'"—Rev. H. T. School Presbyterian.

"The Book is a marvel of lithographical perfection and the new feature of Bible Helps is itself worth several times the price of the book."—Bishop J. H. Vincent, Sept., 1888.

"I regard this edition, all things considered, as the most helpful yet issued. Since I study the interest of the people, I shall take pleasure in recommending this Bible to them."—Rev. R. G. Pearson, of Philadelphia.

"I do not see what more can be realized in the way of convenience, completeness, compactness and durability, than may be found in this edition, which to all these other qualities adds beauty of finish, to complete the sum of possible excellence."—Earl Cranston, of Chicago.

"I know of nothing so practically convenient and valuable as this 'Comprehensive Teachers' edition.' The print, the binding, the paper and the character of the Helps appended, all commend it to general use."—Rev. Basil Manly, D.D., LL.D.

"I very heartily commend the new Bagster's Comprehensive Teachers' Bible as most useful and helpful to all Bible readers and especially to ministers and Sunday-school teachers."—H. Harvey, Prof. Pastoral Theology.

"It is a marvellous compendium, containing a library of information useful and scholarly, and exquisitely printed."—The Dean of Gloucester.

"It is a marvel of completeness. Nothing seems to be wanting."—Professor Sayce.

"It is an exquisite gem of workmanship, the helps for students and teachers are most comprehensive and invaluable."—Rev. R. Bruce, D.D., Chairman of the Congregational Union of England and Wales.

"It supplies the precise information the teacher asks for and should have."—Rev. J. Clifford, D.D., President of the Baptist Union.

"The work is admirably done; for fulness, accuracy, and present-day intelligence, I do not know any compendium equal to it."—Rev. A. Mackennal D.D., Ex-Chairman Congregational Union.

"It is just what a teacher wants; I do not see how it could be better."—Rev. C. H. Spurgeon.

"A vast amount of information of the greatest value to Bible Students."—Methodist Times, Rev. Hugh Price Hughes.

"A perfect help to Bible study. The best present."—Sunday School Times.

"Unspeakably valuable."—Methodist S. S. Record.

"It would be difficult to suggest a more comprehensive and compact mass of information relative to the Bible than that furnished by the aids appended to this new edition. Nothing short of an exhaustive apparatus criticus is thereby placed in the hands of the instructor."—Bookseller.

ST. LUKE, IX.

50 But when Jesus heard it, he answered him, saying, Fear not: believe only, and she shall be made whole.
51 And when he came into the house, he suffered no man to go in, save Peter, and James, and John, and the father and the mother of the maiden.
52 And all wept, and bewailed her: but he said, Weep not; she is not dead, but sleepeth.
53 And they laughed him to scorn, knowing that she was dead.
54 And he put them all out, and took her by the hand, thority over all devils, and to cure diseases.

2 And he sent them to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal the sick.
3 And he said unto them, Take nothing for your journey, neither staves, nor scrip, neither bread, neither money; neither have two coats apiece.
4 And whatsoever house ye enter into, there abide, and thence depart.
5 And whosoever will not receive you, when ye go out of that city, shake off the very dust from your feet for a testimony against them.

thou shalt judge the folk righteously, and govern the nations upon earth.

Let the people praise thee, O God; yea, let all the people praise thee.

Then shall the earth bring forth her increase; and God, even our own God, shall give us his blessing.

God shall bless us; and all the ends of the world shall fear him.

¶ Or this.

Benedic, anima mea. Psalm ciii.

PRAISE the Lord, O my soul; and all that is within me, praise his holy Name.

Praise the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits;

Who forgiveth all thy sin, and healeth all thine infirmities;

Who saveth thy life from destruction, and crowneth thee with mercy and loving-kindness.

O praise the Lord, ye Angels of his, ye that excel in strength; ye that fulfil his commandment, and hearken unto the voice of his word.

O praise the Lord, all ye his hosts; ye servants of his that do his pleasure.

NONPAREIL 48mo.

Size, $3\frac{7}{8}$ x $3\frac{5}{8}$.

4 Thou hast redeem'd our souls with blood,
Hast set the prisoners free,
Hast made us kings and priests to God,
And we shall reign with thee

5 The worlds of nature and of grace
Are put beneath thy power;
Then shorten these delaying days,
And bring the promised hour.

124 "Father, I will that they whom thou hast given me be with me where I am." L.M.

STAND up, my soul, shake off thy fears,
And gird the Gospel armour on;
March to the gates of endless joy,
Where Jesus thy great Captain's gone.

2 Hell and thy sins resist thy course,
But hell and sin are vanquish'd foes;
Thy Saviour nail'd them to the cross,
And sung the triumph when he rose.

3 Then let my soul march boldly on,
Press forward to the heavenly gate;
There peace and joy eternal reign,
And glittering robes for conquerors wait.

4 There shall I wear a starry crown,
And triumph in Almighty grace,
While all the armies of the skies
Join in my glorious Leader's praise.

Whitsuntide.

125 "The Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost." C.M.

HE'S come! let every knee be bent,
All hearts new joy resume;
Sing, ye redeemed, with one consent,
"The Comforter is come."

48 "Rend your heart and not your garments, and turn unto the Lord your God." C.M.

ONCE more the solemn season calls
A holy fast to keep;
And now within the temple walls
Both priest and people weep.

2 But vain all outward sign of grief,
And vain the form of prayer,
Unless the heart implore relief,
And penitence be there.

3 We smite the breast, we weep in vain,
In vain in ashes mourn,
Unless with penitential pain
The smitten soul be torn.

131 "As many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God." L.M.

COME, gracious Spirit, heavenly Dove,
With light and comfort from above;
Be thou our Guardian, thou our Guide,
O'er every thought and step preside.

2 The light of truth to us display,
And make us know and choose thy way;
Plant holy fear in every heart,
That we from thee may ne'er depart.

3 Lead us to Christ, the living way,
Nor let us from his precepts stray;
Lead us to holiness, the road
That we must take to dwell with God.

4 Lead us to heaven, that we may share
Fulness of joy for ever there:
Lead us to God, our final rest,
To be with him for ever blest.

132 "If I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you." P.M.

SOLE AGENCY FOR

THE CAMBRIDGE AND BAGSTER EDITIONS.

BAGSTER'S BIBLES.—"The reputation of this publishing house for issues of the Sacred Scriptures in such forms and with such apparatus as only the highest bookmaker's art and the soundest scholarship of the time can achieve, is of no modern date. Their Polyglot Bible, familiar to at least three generations, with all the helps it offered to the study of the Word of God, to say nothing of other editions, has been gratefully used by hundreds of thousands. . . . For practical use we could not wish for a better book. Its value can only be ascertained by comparing it with others already in the field. He may dispense with a large library, if he will only make a diligent use of such a teacher's aid as Bagster's Comprehensive Teacher's Bible."

TO THE TRADE.

WE desire to call the attention of Jobbing Booksellers, and the trade in general, especially to the wide variety of the Publications listed in this, our Thirty-Eighth Annual Catalogue. Our greatly increased facilities for manufacturing this season will enable us to surpass all previous efforts, and our many friends and patrons may rest assured that all business they may kindly favor us with will receive our prompt and careful attention.

We offer the Holy Bible in every desirable style, size, price, creed, and language. Dealers will notice that we present this season many new and novel features in Binding, and a greater variety of styles than all of our competitors combined. Protestant Bibles in English, German, Swedish and Dano-Norwegian—32mo, 24mo, 16mo, 8vo, and Quarto. Catholic Bibles in English, German and Spanish—8vo and Quarto. These Bibles are printed from Sixteen Sets of Electrotype and Stereotype Plates, representing an enormous outlay.

We are the originators of the Pictorial Family Bible, and have always preferred to Originate rather than to Imitate. Consequently our styles are always the best and freshest. Our illustrated explanatory matter is unapproached for quantity, real value, and artistic worth. We use more (and finer) Colored Plates than any other Publisher of Bibles. We use over one hundred fine line steel and wood copies of Gustave Doré's celebrated Scriptural subjects. Our Bindings have always been noted for their superior strength and durability, and this reputation we guard by sending out first-class work only.

We would also call your attention to our superior lines of Testaments and our largely increased and varied stock of Miscellaneous Publications. Our new and popular Series of School Books are of especial interest to teachers and Educational Booksellers. Our Subscription Department is unequaled in its line of new and highly popular publications.

We offer unusual opportunities, therefore, to Jobbers, Retail Dealers, and Subscription Houses.

Soliciting your valued patronage, which we shall always through fair dealing and courteous treatment endeavor to deserve, we remain,

Very truly yours,

JOHN E. POTTER & CO.

BIBLICAL ATLAS OF TWELVE FULL-PAGE MAPS IN COLORS.

The Only American Edition of the Oxford Teachers' Bible.

There is and has been a great and pressing demand for the Oxford Bible for teachers at a lower price than is charged for the English edition. We have at an enormous expense prepared this edition to meet that demand. Its great popularity and ready sale prove its necessity. Its sale is wonderful.

We desire to impress upon the minds of those who desire these Bibles the fact that they have a practical monopoly—there is no competition. Being the only reprint edition published, it receives generous preference and indorsement everywhere. Every family needs Bibles, and our Oxford Bibles sell wherever shown.

This edition has been eagerly looked for by the American people, and its marvelous sale is proof positive that it meets the demand. It is an absolutely correct reprint of the English Oxford Bible, and is admitted to be without a rival.

The publishers would call attention more especially to this edition of their Teachers' Bible, for the reason that it presents, in the most complete and convenient form, that which no American edition of a Teachers' Bible ever contained. The convenient arrangement of the text with interspersed references and copious notes, together with the illustrated and Explanatory Dictionary, peculiarly adapt the edition to the use of teachers, and especially to those who may not have a Bible Dictionary convenient at hand at all times. The Comprehensive Aids, the Compilation of Dr. Blackwood, a most eminent and distinguished bibliologist, places in their hands the most ready and complete medium to the proper study and comprehension of the Holy Scriptures. The edition is printed on a fine quality of paper, and is bound in neat, durable and attractive styles.

It is the result of industrious research, and only the most reliable material is used in its production, while the most rigid care is exercised in avoiding the slightest exaggeration.

The work is written in a style to please the most fastidious taste, and yet to command the interest of all who peruse its well-stored pages. It is not a series of disjointed sketches of the successive expeditions, but a connected, consecutive narrative, showing how the difficulties environing Arctic navigation have been met and overcome, and discoveries have been made which have unraveled, one by one, many of the wonderful secrets of that region of mystery which surrounds the North Pole.

BOUND IN IMITATION TREE CALF (Waterproof), 12mo, Cloth, Extra, PRICE, $1.25.

These Recipes are written in plain English, concisely yet clearly, so that none can mistake their meaning. In many cases, while giving the more elaborate and expensive mode of making certain articles, cheaper and scarcely inferior methods have been added. The interests of the user have been carefully considered by giving the modes of making the most tempting luxuries, as well as the commoner necessaries, with the least possible outlay or expense—a desideratum too frequently overlooked in the majority of cookery books published. In very many instances health has been impaired and the comfort and happiness of families marred by the ignorance of those having the supervision of the culinary department. Many books have been written and published with the design of correcting this fault, some of which have been prepared by competent writers, and are excellent so far as they go, and yet are not so complete and perfect as to render improvement difficult or impracticable. To remedy the defects in these, and to obviate the many objections raised against them by users, Mrs. Porter has successfully striven to avoid similar errors in the production of her work. To insure perfect reliability practical tests were applied in all cases, and what was found to be impracticable discarded. Hence, the housewife may safely assure herself that in this work she will find the best and most reliable guide to the frugal and economical management of her culinary department.

THE ONLY RELIABLE WORK OF ITS KIND EVER PUBLISHED.

The authors have undertaken the preparation of this work at the suggestion of many ladies, and with characteristic modesty have taken up the subject in all its intricate bearings, using plain language that cannot be misunderstood. Having enjoyed advantages possessed by few other physicians in the United States, they have brought to bear the experience of years of devotion to their noble calling, and drawn from the best sources, past and present, to produce a work worthy of the careful consideration and study of the mothers and daughters of our land.

It is the province of this work to dispel the ignorance which has for ages made woman the slave of caprice and sensuality, and to define her true sphere of action as the Divine Creator contemplated it. For ages the cry of despairing women has gone up for that knowledge of themselves so long denied them, and the era which emancipates them from the degrading thraldom will prove one of untold blessing conferred. Through the educating influence of "The Ladies' New Medical Guide" woman has placed within her reach the medium through which she can secure that which has hitherto been denied her—the ability to attain a higher physical perfection, and with it the highest and best development of her mental, social and physical attributes.

It is a large and handsome octavo volume of about 700 pages, printed on the finest book paper, and elegantly and substantially bound.

THE UNITED STATES SECRET SERVICE

IN THE LATE WAR,

BY

Gen. La Fayette C. Baker,

ORGANIZER AND FIRST CHIEF OF THE NATIONAL SECRET SERVICE BUREAU OF THE UNITED STATES.

The Marvelous and Wonderful Operations of the National Detectives!

A GRAPHIC HISTORY OF THRILLING EXPERIENCES.

An Exposure of the Manifold and Gigantic Frauds and Crimes Practiced in the most Extraordinary and Perilous Times the Republic has Ever Known.

Each Incident Becomes a Picturesque Story of the Most Absorbing Interest, and it will be Read with Keener Zest than any Romance ever Written.

So Romantic are Many of the Details, that they Seem Hard to Believe, yet Every Incident Related is True.

General Baker, while active in the discharge of duties that called forth almost Superhuman Cunning and Daring, was a careful observer of men and a Student of the Times, as well as of his surroundings. He was thus, of all men, specially qualified for the work he has so well and nobly written. He has produced, in the "United States Secret Service," a book of such really marvelous interest, historical value and exceedingly great literary excellence that it must at once occupy, and for time henceforth retain, the front rank in public appreciation and national importance.

The Secret Burial Place of John Wilkes Booth, the Assassin, is herein disclosed.

General Baker was the only living man who held this secret, the body having been turned over to him after the post-mortem examination, on the United States gunboat, by the Secretary of War. The disposition of the body, so long a secret, is here made public for the first time.

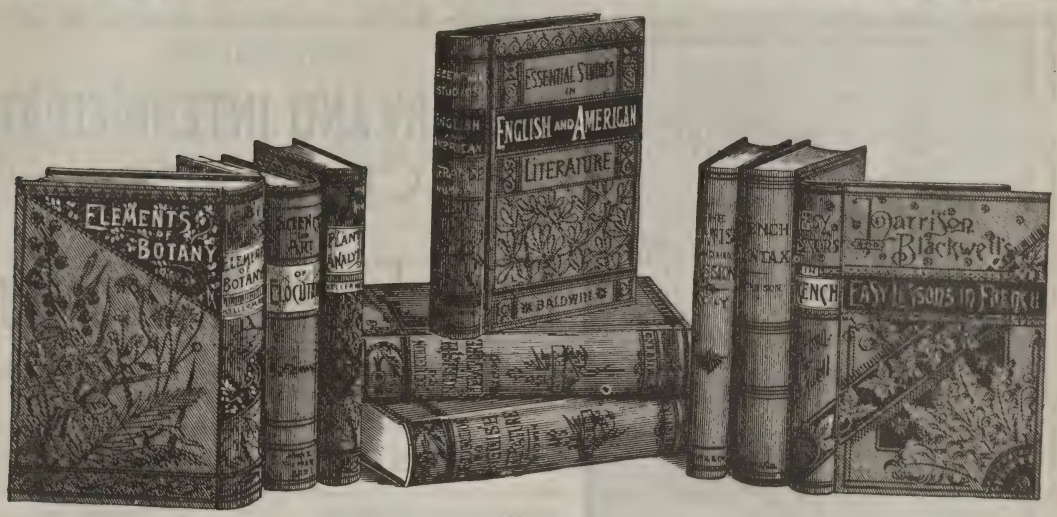
NEW AND PRACTICAL

SCHOOL AND COLLEGE TEXT-BOOKS.



THE LATEST AND THE BEST.

MOST SYSTEMATIC. MOST USEFUL. MOST ECONOMICAL.
MOST PRACTICAL. MOST COMPLETE. EASIEST TO TEACH.

A Series of Text-Books that Occupy the Very Front Rank of Educational Publications.

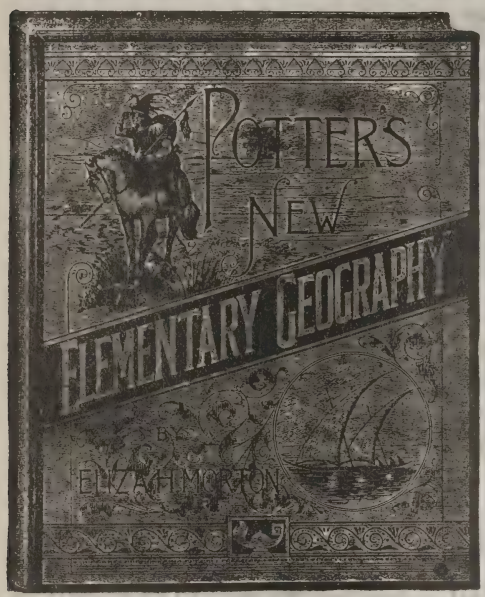
PROGRESS marks the line of all the sciences, and new ideas are constantly superseding each other. Ancient text-books have no longer a place in the school-room, simply because new methods founded upon improved theories have furnished us with better ones. Recognizing this fact, and that, as the world grows older, there is a constantly increasing demand for the very best systems extant, we have confined ourselves in the selection of our series of School and College Text-Books only to those which have fully demonstrated their superiority in every respect over any already published. In this we have been governed in a very great measure by the opinions and judgment of some of our most eminent and learned professors.

THEY PRESENT

THE MOST IMPROVED METHODS OF TEACHING.

The attention of Educators is especially called to the material points claimed for these School-Books, such as their utility, their practical character, and as being the most systematic, complete, economical, and the easiest to teach. These points are universally conceded by the many teachers who have adopted and are now using them.

POTTER'S
NEW ELEMENTARY GEOGRAPHY.



DESIGNED FOR

PRIMARY AND INTERMEDIATE CLASSES.

BY

Miss Eliza H. Morton,

Late Teacher of Geographical Science in the Normal Department of Battle Creek College, Battle Creek, Michigan.

HANDSOMELY BOUND.

SCHOLARS' EDITION, ... Price, 75 cents
TEACHERS' EDITION, ... Price, $1.00

This Geography is of exceedingly great value as an educational work. Children discover new truths by the application of principles already learned. Judgment and common sense are cultivated. Curiosity is awakened, enthusiasm kindled, and interest maintained. Pupils are taught to become thinkers and workers. The old, humdrum work is avoided, and the lessons are new, bright, fresh and attractive. The location of a place is strongly impressed on the child by its association with an interesting fact. The attractive side of the study is always presented, and valuable time is not spent in the vain attempt to teach the exact location of thousands of unimportant places.

No tedious pages of map questions are given, but the location of places is taught naturally by the association of pleasing ideas. The definitions are simple and the statements concise.

POTTER'S
ADVANCED GEOGRAPHY.

Designed for Advanced Classes

BY MISS ELIZA H. MORTON,

Author of "Potter's Elementary Geography;" late Teacher of Geographical Science in the Normal Department of Battle Creek College, Battle Creek, Michigan.

HANDSOMELY BOUND. SCHOLARS' EDITION, Price $1.25. TEACHERS' EDITION, Price $1.50.

THE SCHOLARS' EDITION Gives interesting employment to the pupil, and increases the power of thought. The pupil is taught to outline each lesson with topics, and to recite from the same. The Physical side of Geography is made so prominent, and the most interesting facts are so linked together, as to strongly impress the mind, and so lay a firm foundation for the study of the political features of the world.

THE TEACHERS' EDITION Contains specific instructions for presenting ideas in the most interesting manner. It gives a complete general outline of oral instruction for advanced schools. It is replete with methods, suggestions and facts of interest, and the plan can be successfully followed by the most inexperienced teacher. It is of incalculable value, and a great help to those who are familiar with oral instruction.

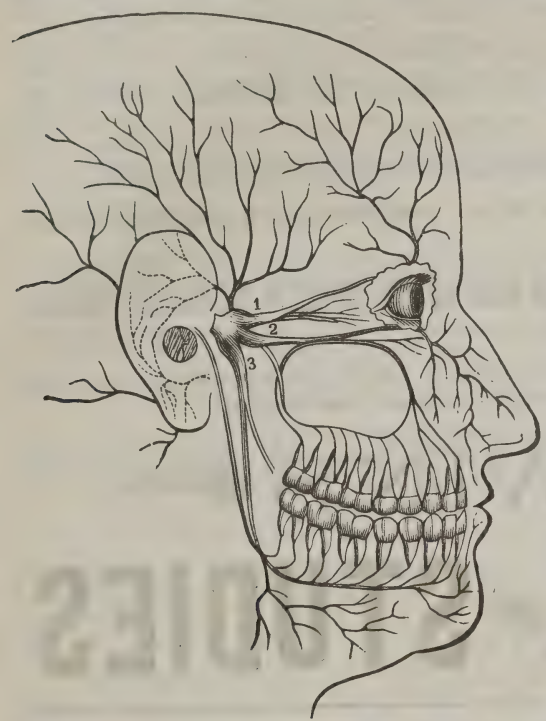
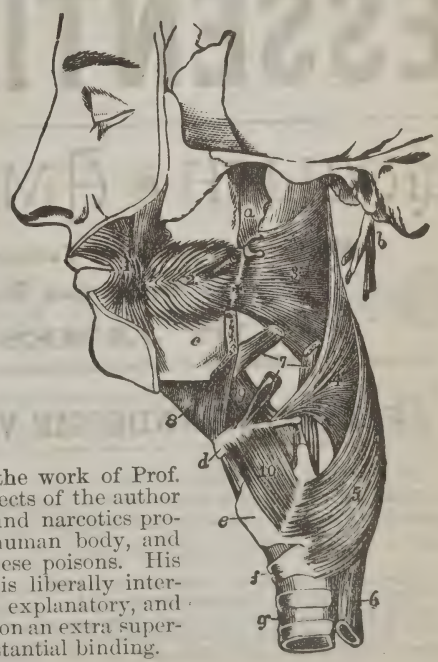
HUMAN BODY.



A New and Valuable Text-Book for Public and Private Schools.

WITH MANY ILLUSTRATIONS IN COLORS



BY

JAMES W. HARTIGAN, A.M., M.D., D.S.,

Professor of Human and Comparative Anatomy and Structural Botany in the University of West Virginia; Lecturer on Anatomy, Physiology, and the Effects of Alcohol and Narcotics on the Human Body in the Teachers' State Normal Institute; Member of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, and Microscopist for the West Virginia Agricultural Experiment Station.

12 mo, Cloth. Price, 90 Cents.

As a text-book for the use of public and private schools the work of Prof. Hartigan especially commends itself. One of the principal objects of the author is to show practically the evil effects which the use of alcohol and narcotics produces upon the Anatomy, Physiology and Hygiene of the human body, and thereby to educate the student against the evil influences of these poisons. His treatment of the subject is clear and intelligible. The text is liberally interspersed throughout with appropriate diagrams, illustrative and explanatory, and many in colors. It is printed from a large, clear and open type, on an extra supercalendered paper, and is handsomely bound in a good and substantial binding.

BALDWIN'S ESSENTIAL STUDIES IN ENGLISH AMERICAN LITERATURE.

With Questions and Exercises, Selected Readings and References, Numerous Biographical Notes, etc., etc.,

BY JAMES BALDWIN, PH. D.,

Author of "Baldwin's English Literature;" late Superintendent of Schools, Huntingdon, Indiana.

IN ONE HANDSOME VOLUME. CLOTH. PRICE, $1.25.

In this book the history of English and American Literature is presented in an interesting and attractive manner. Questions and exercises designed to awaken thought, and to lead to investigation and additional studies, are made prominent throughout the book.

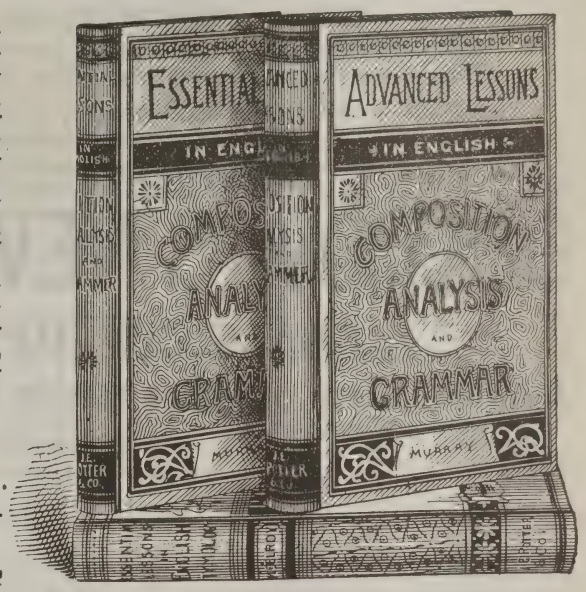
It is in advance of all works hitherto published on this subject to make real students of literature.—PROF. S. LOOMIS, Principal of Brainerd Institute, Chester, S. C.

Prof. Baldwin has fully caught the new idea of bringing the pupil face to face with the writer through his works, and his book is an admirable introduction to a course of readings from our literature, or a companion through such a course.—PROF. JOHN G. R. MCELROY, A. M., Professor of Rhetoric and the English Language, University of Pennsylvania.

MURRAY'S LANGUAGE SERIES

COMPLETE IN TWO BOOKS.

Composition, Analysis and Grammar are taught together. This is now regarded by all successful teachers as the correct method of treating our language. The grading of the exercises, the arrangement of topics, and the selections for analysis, are superior to those found elsewhere. They are going into good schools more rapidly than any other series.



By J. E. MURRAY,

Principal of Oenaville High School; late Superintendent Public Schools, Caldwell, Texas, etc., etc.

Book I.—ESSENTIAL LESSONS

IN

ENGLISH COMPOSITION, ANALYSIS AND GRAMMAR.

HANDSOMELY BOUND IN CLOTH. PRICE, 65 CENTS.

It embodies all the most approved methods of teaching. The exercises are better arranged and more exhaustive in scope than those of any other series. Analysis is illustrated by a system of diagrams unequaled for simplicity, aptness and beauty. It is the best "shorter course" ever written.

Book II.—ADVANCED LESSONS

IN

ENGLISH COMPOSITION, ANALYSIS AND GRAMMAR.

HANDSOMELY BOUND IN CLOTH. PRICE, 75 CENTS.

This book completes the series. It is logical, progressive, and highly practical. The methods appeal to the common sense, originality and independence of pupils. The arrangement is such as to create an interest in the work, and insure good results.

I like your system of diagrams better than any I have ever before seen.—J. H. HART, Esq., Teacher, Machias, Me.

I am so much pleased with "Murray's Language Series" that I shall introduce it here with our next class.—JOHN W. HESTON, Principal of Pennsylvania State College, State College, Penna.

McELROY'S ETYMOLOGY.

ESSENTIAL LESSONS IN ENGLISH ETYMOLOGY,

COMPRISING THE

HISTORY OF WORDS, THEIR DERIVATION, COMPOSITION, RELATIONSHIP, ETC.

By JOHN G. R. McELROY,

Professor of Rhetoric and English Language in the University of Pennsylvania.

HANDSOMELY BOUND IN CLOTH. PRICE, 75 CENTS.

It revolutionizes the teaching of Etymology; it is simple and clear; it is modern; it is complete; it is taught in an interesting way, and it makes every etymological law, truth and process clear and comprehensible.

BELLOW'S NEW GEOMETRY.

ELEMENTS OF GEOMETRY.

A New System of Presentation for School and College Use.

By C. F. R. BELLOWS, M.A., C.E.,

Professor of Mathematics, Michigan State Normal School.

HANDSOMELY BOUND IN CLOTH, 12 mo. PRICE, $1.25.

The theories introduced into the text proper are those only which are links in the chain of connections, or which are needed in the development of the system. The number of practical questions and exercises extending throughout the work are an especial feature, as also are the large number of problems of construction at the close of the several books.

The demonstrations are purely geometrical; algebraical forms are avoided. The book is logical not only in methods but in arrangement, and the classification adopted will be found much more natural than the usual highly artificial system, and more serviceable in aiding the retentive powers of the learner.

I have been using "Bellow's Elements of Geometry" the past year with exceeding satisfactory results. The arrangement of the book is far superior to that of any other book on the subject I have ever examined. I find it admirably adapted to class work. It inspires to original and independent effort on the part of each individual student.—W. W. CHALMERS, Superintendent of Schools, High School, Cassopolis, Michigan.

The plan of the work must commend itself to teachers and students alike. The author has kept in view always his purpose of showing the practical value of botanical knowledge.

The book presents a comprehensive view of the vegetable kingdom in a condensed form. This includes a general survey of the organs of plants, their structure and functions, the classification of plants according to their supposed genetic relationship, and, finally, of the uses of plants and the application of botanical knowledge in the various pursuits of life.

All unnecessary descriptions are avoided, yet nothing is omitted that will lead to a careful and interesting work. Complete directions for collecting and preserving specimens are given.

This book is of inestimable value to the student as an aid in analyzing. In Part I., under the head of Descriptive Botany, explanations are given of the technical terms commonly used in describing plants. In Part II. is a Key to the families, composed as far as possible on the most obvious characteristics presented by the plants. By means of this Key any plant may be quickly and correctly referred to its proper family.

"No Methodist writer, not excepting Watson, Pope, Raymond, or any other Methodist author, has ever more clearly and forcibly set forth and unanswerably vindicated Wesleyan Methodist Arminianism than has Dr. Summers. As a text-book, on which a student is to stand an examination, it has qualities that must give it the precedence over Watson or Pope."—Dr. John E. Edwards. "Dr. Summers was evidently a man of profound convictions, of wide reading, cautiously conservative, but ready to learn, able to defend his positions. His ultra-conservative views of textual criticism interfere with the accuracy of his citation of proof-text; but his editor has been careful to annotate in the interest of a more correct attitude to the real word of God. Indeed, Professor Tigert has supplemented the volume so as to bring it 'down to date' in all the departments of Biblical learning upon which it seemed to require such enlargement. The doctrinal views are precisely what might be expected from the claims of the title. They are carefully and fully stated, objections are candidly weighed; but the author remains a Wesleyan Arminian."—Sunday-school Times.

A Far Look Ahead; or, The Diothas. Twelfth edition. 16mo, paper, pp. viii + 358 . . . . . 50 cts.

"In this quaint and curious romance the author has undertaken to give us a glimpse of society, business, and public affairs as they will exist, or as he fancies they will exist, in the ninety-sixth century; or shall we say that he uses this curious deceit simply to mask his sharp and well-directed attacks on the shams and follies of the age? However that may be, the idea is well carried out. . . . The book is a bright and clever one, and will well repay a perusal."—National Republican.

"The book is devoted to customs, habits, and love in the misty future, and for pure, genuine imagination, most charmingly worked out, is unexcelled."—Boston Evening Transcript.

Amicis' Masterpiece. The Vandyke Edition.

AMICIS (Edmondo De). Holland and Its People. Translated from the Italian by Caroline Tilton. New, revised edition, printed from new plates. With 77 illustrations. Pp. 460, gilt top, $2 25

CONTENTS.—Holland—Zealand—Rotterdam—Delft—The Hague—Leyden—Haarlem—Amsterdam—Utrecht—Broeck—Zaandam—Alkmaar—Helder—The Zuyder Zee—Friesland—Groningen—From Groningen to Arnhem.

"Whoever," says De Amicis, "looks for the first time at a large map of Holland, wonders that a country so constituted can continue to exist. It is the land of transformation," but accustomed as they may be to one metamorphosis or another, the staid, sober-minded Hollanders of to-day may well rub their eyes with astonishment in having placed before them the brilliant and glowing pictures of their country which have been produced by the imaginative and poetic Italian traveller.

"A charming book, . . . the story of a land rich, fertile, and prosperous, which has been reclaimed from the barren sea."—N. Y. Tribune.

"In 'Holland and its People' he has struck the golden mean; his information is all offered in the most delightfully attractive form, and he infuses a portion of his warm blood, his enthusiasm, his restlessness, his bounding animal spirits, and his happy disposition into his readers."

American Historical Association (Papers of). Issued quarterly. Price per Part $1 00
